

NLJC High Holy Days Appeal 2021

At the Council meeting held on August 12th, officers chose three beneficiaries from a list circulated earlier. The three chosen were

- Norwich Liberal Jewish Community
- Harwich Kindertransport Memorial Appeal
- Sindyanna of Galilee

Here is the full list:

Norwich Liberal Jewish Community

<http://www.norwichljc.org.uk>

Needing no introduction, your contribution is vital for the Norwich Liberal Jewish Community's ability to grow as a small, progressive force for Judaism in Norwich and the region.

Harwich Kindertransport Memorial Appeal

<https://kindertransport-memorial.org>

The Kindertransport Memorial & Learning Trust aims to create and place a memorial for learning about the Kindertransport and the crucial role played by Harwich and Dovercourt. The memorial is to be located on the Harwich quayside, close to the spot where the children first set foot on British soil.

Sindyanna of Galilee

<https://www.sindyanna.com>

Sindyanna of Galilee is a non-profit organization led by a team of Jewish and Arab women working to create social change from the ground up. It achieves this by selling premium products into the international marketplace, and reinvesting profits back into women's education.

Union of Jewish Students Appeal (on behalf of UEA J-Soc)

<https://www.ujs.org.uk/uea>

The UEA J-Soc is open to all students attending university in East Anglia. It hosts a variety of events throughout the academic year, and plans to put on Friday night dinners, student-led egalitarian services, lunch and learn; also, a talk on the Jewish historical presence in Norwich.

United Jewish Israel Appeal (UJIA)

<https://ujia.org>

in 2015, UJIA introduced Birthright tours for Reform and Liberal communities, and is credited with presenting a reasonably well-balanced picture of Israel and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Youth Aliyah Child Rescue

<https://youthaliyah.org.uk>

Through five residential Youth Villages and a ground-breaking educational methodology, the Village Way, Youth Aliyah Child Rescue offers these children a safe and nurturing environment where they can heal from their traumatic pasts and gain the skills that they need to live happy and productive lives as engaged members of Israeli society, escaping cycles of abuse, neglect, and welfare dependency.
