

JURNET'S HOUSE NORWICH

COME TO AN EXCITING AND IMPORTANT COMMUNITY MEETING

And be part of a discussion about the possibilities for Jurnet's House, the oldest house of Jewish habitation in the country, and the oldest domestic dwelling in Norwich!

As you may have seen in the press over recent weeks, there is the possibility of the wider Jewish community of Norwich, in partnership with the University of East Anglia, having some say in future plans for this important and historic building.

We will be hearing from those who have been involved so far.

All Jewish residents of Norwich and Norfolk are welcome, whether affiliated or not.

When: Sunday 30th July

Time: 11am

Where: Norwich Synagogue, 3 Earlham Road, NR2 3RA

Coffee and bagels provided!

There is some parking at the synagogue.
Please let Marian Prinsley know on marianprinsley@gmail.com if you're planning on joining us so that we can cater appropriately. Also, let us know if you need a parking place reserved for you.
